

ABOUT THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT OF THE WATCHMAN CATHOLIC CHARISMATIC RENEWAL MOVEMENT

Pastor Aloysius Chukwuemeka Ohanebo is the General Superintendent of the Watchman Catholic Charismatic Renewal Movement, with headquarters in Lagos, Nigeria, and over hundred thousand membership nationwide.

Pastor Ohanebo has excelled as pastor, evangelist, Christian leader, and well sought-after Bible teacher, with the task of prosecuting the Second Exodus (mass movement of men from diverse errors and ungodly practices to the liberating truth of the gospel of Christ),

A trained quantity surveyor, Pastor Ohanebo has built into himself (as is usual with quantity surveyors) the carefulness, meticulousness and precision of a construction economist, virtues he has brought to bear in his ministry and leadership. He has come to be specially known for the "revelation-messages" he dishes out from time to time in which the mind of God for the hour is revealed.

The non-denominational International Gospel Ministers' Conference (IGMC) of The Hour, which he camphions with his congregation, has been a tremendous blessing to many ministers of the gospel - pastors, evangelists, Church leaders, missionaries and other Church workers who convoke from Nigeria and several parts of the world to hear about God's Three-fold End-time Project, which He revealed to Pastor Ohanebo for today's Church.

